The Oakley Public Library invites you to join the 2025 Summer Reading Program from June 2 to August 2, and it's your chance to read what you love, earn cool rewards, and have a blast while you're at it. All you have to do is track your reading. Once you finish, you'll score a free book and be entered into a prize drawing with some awesome giveaways like Beats headphones, Squishmallows, a Meta Quest headset, LEGO sets, board games, and tons more. Head to ccclib.org/summer for details, and start your reading adventure. See you at the library!

U.S. Historical Fact

And now it's time for your US historical facts of the day. High school graduations in the U.S. became common in the early 20th century, with caps, gowns, and diplomas becoming standard symbols of completion. By 2020, over 88% of American students graduated high school, marking a major increase from just 9% in 1910.

Closing

That's it for your morning announcements! Happy Friday falcons, change the world. Good luck on finals week falcons!
