- You are invited to Freedom High School's 8th Annual Black P.R.I.D.E. Conference, a Black History Month Educational Summit. On February 27, 2024, you and your peers from across the Liberty Union High School District will have the opportunity to spend the day learning and engaging in culturally, historically, and academically relevant information regarding the influence and importance of Black History.

The Black P.R.I.D.E. conference stands for Power, Resilience, Inspiration, Dedication, and Education. This year's theme is "Make Opportunities Happen." Our goal is to continue to engage and motivate each student in attendance. We are looking forward to an educational, fun, and inspiring day. During the conference, you will have the opportunity to listen to multiple speakers, participate in breakout sessions and workshops, and enjoy a soul food lunch. Permission slips and more information are available in your SLC offices. Permission slips are due by 1/26/2024 by 4pm.
