How does Fitzgerald use Figurative Language to create strongly positive or negative reader reactions in ONE of the following settings/situations?
\Box The Buchanans' Home in Chapter 1 \Box The Valley of the Ashes Chapter 2 \Box Myrtle's
Apartment and Party in Chapter 2 \square Gatsby's Party Chapter 3 \square Gatsby and Daisy's Reunion
Chapter 5
Write an evidenced paragraph response. Upload onto Turnitin.com and ensure there is little similarity between your submission and websites or other submissions.
A B C D F General Paragraph qualities
Thoughtfully responsive to prompt. Well-argued stance supported by strong evidence. Thorough analysis. Transitions aid argument. Responsive to entire prompt. Takes a clear stance. Uses strong Evidence. Multi-step analysis. Transitions used. Responsive to prompt. Takes a clear stance. Uses Evidence. Some analysis. Transitions used. Attempts to answer prompt. Evidence vague or paraphrased. Struggles to engage with question or major problems in construction.
Question- Specific qualities
Thoroughly addresses how the author uses figurative language for either positive or negative effect. Connects authorial choices to reader reactions.
Addresses how the author uses language for either positive or negative effect. Links authorial choices to reader reactions. Discusses figurative language for either positive or negative effect. Mentions reader reactions.
Neglects either figurative language or its use for positive/negative effect. Only vaguely touches on reader reaction.
Does not discuss language use or reader response. May just paraphrase plot.

					