

HEALTH CAREER TALKS

Presenting to you a week of health career talks by the professionals themselves! Sharing their schooling and professional experiences.

Space is limited so here is what you need to do:

1. Get a permission slip from C211 (look on door)

2. Before school, at lunch, or after school, turn in your permission slip to C211 to get a prearranged pass.

Ms. Bruins

1 April 29th 10:30 am

Jana Scarbrough, Registered Nurse BSN, RN, PHN, CHPN

With nearly two decades in the medical field, Jana specializes in Home Health and Hospice care. Currently, as District Nurse for LUHSD, she conducts health assessments, staff training, & manages immunization programs. She also designs individual health plans for students and supervises nursing staff.

2 April 29th 2:00 pm

Jessica Gregory- Esparza, Sonographer, creates images of internal body structures using ultrasound technology. Jessica studied at the Kaiser Permanente School of Allied Health Sciences and received her Sonography II certification.

3 April 30th 11:15 am

Jacklin Andersen, Doctor of veterinary medicine
Desiree Duarte, registered veterinary technician
Jessica Perkey, Practice Manager
Banfield Pet Hospital offers quality health and wellness care for small animals, with a dedicated staff eager to share their care journey.

4 April 30th 1:30 pm

Traci Helm, Registered Nurse Labor & Delivery
With 14 years of experience, she manages labor, delivers babies, and assists with C-sections. She also assesses and stabilizes newborns, provides postpartum care, and collaborates closely with doctors for comprehensive patient care.

5 May 1st 12:30 pm

Julie Young, Registered Nurse/Certified Obstetrics and Nursing Educator
Julie has 25 years of professional experience and started teaching at Cal State East Bay last year. She works in Obstetrics with labor and delivery at John Muir Walnut Creek, the county's only level 3/high-risk institution. Julie also teaches nursing courses and oversees clinical rotations at Cal State East Bay.

6 May 2nd 11:38 am

Dulce Madrigal- Inpatient Pharmacy Technician
With 18 years of experience, Dulce has been preparing intravenous medications like antibiotics and chemotherapy drugs for hospitalized patients. She also ensures that operating rooms and nursing units are well-stocked with necessary medications, requiring great attention to detail and adherence to safety protocols.

