333-338 Summaries

Instructions: In the table below, Sophocles' Antigone has been broken into major sections. After reading each section, summarize any important events, character interactions, or narrations that occur.

Lines	Summary
Beginning of Scene– 830
830-890

333-338/ 342-346 Analysis

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Instructions: After reading each chapter, describe what you learned about each of the major characters. Make sure to include elements of the character's speech, thoughts, effect on others, actions, and looks. Then, select two characters from the scene and analyze them to determine how they are character foils.

Include page numbers for each entry

Creon
Haemon

Character Foil
Focus characters	Contrasting Traits	How does this foil affect the scene?

Scene 4 Analysis Questions

Instructions: After completing the reading, answer the following questions. Your answers should consist of a brief paragraph that uses textual evidence to validate your ideas.

In lines 840-850, what are Creon and Haemon arguing about? What prejudices does Creon reveal, and what do they tell you about Creon's character?
One of the characteristics of a tragic hero is a "good" person who is brought down by an "act of injustice." Explain why Creon's choice to kill Antigone is an "act of injustice."

Creon and His Foils

Name _____

Date _____

Period _____

Instructions: Understanding how foils are used to highlight important traits can be vital to understanding a character's personality and motivation. We have been keeping track of foils in every scene of Antigone, and now it is time to start thinking about what they bring out in Creon!

Foils: The following characters are foils to Creon. If you are using the fillable PDF, use the form to select which character on which you would like to focus for this assignment.	Antigone	Ismene
	The Guard	Haemon

Foils: The following characters are foils to Creon. If you are using the fillable PDF, use the form to select which character on which you would like to focus for this assignment.

If you are not using the fillable PDF, indicate your choice by circling or typing the name of your chosen character.

In the space below, identify two major traits your chosen foil helps to reveal in Creon as a character. When you have done this, find evidence in the text showing that the foil you selected reveals the trait you identified. Then, explain how the quote you found stands as evidence for your ideas.

Traits	Textual Evidence	Reasoning
Trait 1:
Trait 2:		